

Crystal and Cassandra Davis standing in front of the school's logo at the medicine building just prior to starting 4th semester this past Tuesday at the University of Durango in Chihuahua. They started with 200 plus students one and a half years ago and has now diminished down to 45.

They would greatly covet your prayers!

